Categories of Sources of Personal Information

We may collect personal information directly or indirectly from you, automatically, or from other sources.

We obtain the categories of personal information listed above from the following categories of sources:

- Directly from you, for example, when you register to our Services, you may provide us with your information such as your phone number, name, photo, etc.;
- Indirectly from your device, such as Device Identifiers (IP address, etc.), your login sessions, activity data, etc.;
- Other sources, such as social media sites if you choose to sign in through your social media account;
- Third-party service providers and partners such as analytics providers and advertising partners.

Use of Personal Information

At Viber, we use your personal information to provide you with the best possible Service. The main purposes of use are described below.

We will use and disclose your personal information as detailed under Viber's Privacy Policy (see the "How We Use Your Data" section), and in general:

- To fulfill or meet the reason you provided the information. For example, we will use the personal information you will provide through registration in order to create your Viber account.

- To provide, support, and develop our Services, as well as improve and customize our Services. For example, we will use your Device Identifiers and Inferences to customize the content we show you, including personalized ads, subject to your opt-out rights.
- For security and fraud detection purposes, and to maintain the safety, security, and integrity of our Services.
- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As otherwise described to you when collecting your personal information.
- To evaluate or conduct a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of our assets.

We will not collect additional categories of personal information or use the personal information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

Disclosures of Personal Information for a Business Purpose

We disclose personal information to third parties, including our corporate family, and trusted companies that help us provide our Services for our business purposes.

We may disclose your Personal Information to a contractor or service provider for a business purpose. The types of personal information we share for a business purpose, vary, depending on the purpose and the function provided by the third party to whom we disclose such information. When we disclose Personal Information for a business purpose, we enter a contract that describes the purpose and requires the recipient to both keep that Personal Information confidential and not use it for any purpose except performing the contract. We further restrict the contractor and service provider from selling or sharing your Personal Information.

In the preceding twelve (12) months, we disclosed the following categories of Personal Information for a business purpose:

	Category (corresponding with the table above)	Category of Recipient	Business Purpose

Sale or Share of Personal Information

We do not collect your personal information for the purpose of selling it in exchange for money; however, we do enable placement of third-party advertisements through our Services and share certain personal information for such purpose, which may amount to a “share” of your personal information under the CCPA’s broad definition of the term.

The CCPA defines “sharing” as “communicating orally, in writing, or by electronic or other means, a consumer’s personal information” to “a third party for cross-context behavioral advertising, whether or not for money or other valuable consideration.” In other words, we may share your Personal Information with a third party to help serve personalized content or ads that may be more relevant to your interests, and to perform other advertising-related services such as enabling our partners to serve such personalized content.

To enable the limited advertisements on our Services, we may share Device Identifiers (i.e., an advertising identifier associated with your device) with our third-party advertising partners (listed HERE), along with certain of your device data (e.g., language preference), age range, inferred gender, country, city, reduced IP address (or GPS location data if you allowed us to collect in your settings) and certain technical or aggregated data about you and the device you are using.

In the preceding twelve (12) months, we “sell” or “share” the following categories of Personal Information for a business purpose:

Category (corresponding with the table above)	Category Recipient	Purpose of Sale or Share
Category A Category F Category G Category K Category L	Ad-network	Share for cross-context behavioral advertising.

Children Under Age 16

Viber does not knowingly sell, share, or process the personal information of users who are under 16 years of age for targeted advertising.

Sensitive Personal Information

In the preceding twelve (12) months, we collected the following SPI: age range, inferred gender, and GPS location (subject to your consent). You may opt-out from GPS location collection through your mobile device settings, or through Viber App “Settings/privacy/personal data” by keeping the “Allow accurate location-based services” toggle off.

Information Retention

We only retain personal information for as long as required to fulfill the purpose(s) for which the information was collected, unless a legal obligation requires us to retain it longer. Please see the “Data Retention” section of Viber’s Privacy Policy for more details about how long we keep your personal information for the purposes described above.

The retention periods are determined according to the following criteria:

1. For as long as it remains necessary in order to achieve the purpose for which the personal information was initially processed. For example: if you contacted us, we will retain your contact information at least until we will address your inquiry.
2. To comply with our regulatory obligations. For example: transactional data will be retained for up to seven years (or even more under certain circumstances) for compliance with our bookkeeping obligations purposes.
3. To resolve a claim, we might have or a dispute with you, including any legal proceeding between us, until such dispute will be resolved, and following, if we find it necessary, in accordance with applicable statutory limitation periods.

Your Rights Under the CCPA & How You May Exercise Your Rights

The CCPA provides California residents certain rights related to their personal information, as we explain below. In order to allow you to exercise these rights, Viber made changes so you can now better control your data on the app.

If you are a California resident, you may exercise certain privacy rights related to your Personal Information. You may exercise these rights free of charge except as otherwise permitted under applicable law. We may limit our response to your exercise of these privacy rights as permitted under applicable law, all as detailed herein.

How You May Exercise Your Rights

Rights that can be exercised directly through the Viber App settings or Viber accounts:

- We enable you to delete, edit/correct your messages anytime, even after they have been sent (they will be deleted or appear edited for you, your friend and our Services).
- You can also control your privacy settings within the App to change the visibility of your online status.
- You can disable the “seen” notification so that other users do not know whether you’ve read a message yet.
- You can choose not to share your photo and/or birthday or not to allow other users to look you up by name, which choices are available within the App.
- You can also make additional choices on your phone’s settings by changing our App’s permissions such as to allow or disable GPS location sharing, access to contact list and more.
- If you do not wish to receive Viber marketing notifications, you may adjust your system settings to decline notifications from Viber, or submit a request to our support. And if you subscribed to receive promotional emails from Viber, you can unsubscribe in any such email at any time.
- Sending a message to a bot or subscribing to a bot will allow admins of that bot to send you notifications and personal messages. If you do not wish to receive such notifications, you may adjust your account settings to decline them or opt-out at any time from receiving further notifications. You may also adjust your phone preferences to enable or disable the use of your GPS location data at any time.
- You can choose to allow or to not allow customization and personalization of our Services provided to you based on your personal information, by changing your personal data toggles in the privacy setting within the App.

Opt Out from cross-contextual ads or limiting the use of SPI:

- You can simply open the Viber App, access the “Settings/privacy/personal data” menu within the App and switch the “Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information” toggle on, and, switch your “Allow accurate location-based services” toggle off if you had previously turned it on (the “Opt-Out”). If you are having trouble finding the toggles or need further instructions you can send us an email to privacy@viber.com, or contact us via our online form as described below. Furthermore, if you are having trouble finding the “Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information” toggle you can send us an Opt-Out request at any time via the following link: <https://support.viber.com/customer/portal/emails/new?type=CA>
- We also are able to affirmatively respect the Global Privacy Control preference through Consent Management Platform (“CMP”) on Viber websites.

In addition to the various methods described above that allow you to easily exercise your rights via your App's settings at any time, you may also submit a request to exercise your rights by contacting us, as follows:

- Our online form available at: <https://help.viber.com/en/contact> - please choose the "privacy inquiry" category.
- Using the "contact us" form on the App.
- Email: privacy@viber.com

We may require additional information from you in order to honor your request and we may decline your request as permitted under applicable law.

We will respond to a verifiable request within the timeframes set forth under the CCPA, including any extensions (in such event, we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing). We may reply by a notification under your account, email, or other means of communication. Please note that any disclosures we provide will only cover the 12-month period preceding the receipt of your request. We do not charge a fee to process or respond to your verifiable request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded.

Authorized Agents

Please note that, only you or a person registered with the California Secretary of State that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable request related to your personal information. You may also make a verifiable request on behalf of your minor child. Such request must include sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative as well as sufficient details regarding your request that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

Notice of Financial Incentive

We do not offer financial incentives to consumers for providing Personal Information.

Changes to This CCPA Notice

This notice was last updated on January 1, 2023. We may revise or update this CCPA Notice from time to time, and in any event, as required under the CCPA, we will update the CCPA Notice every 12 months. If changes to this privacy notice will have a fundamental impact on the nature of the processing or otherwise have a substantial impact on you, we will give you sufficient advance notice so that you have the opportunity to exercise your rights (e.g. to object to the processing).

The last revision date will be reflected in the “Last Modified” heading at the top of this CCPA Notice.

Other California Obligations

Direct Marketing Requests:

California Civil Code Section 1798.83 (“Shine the Light”) permits you, if you are a California resident, to request certain information regarding disclosure of Personal Information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. Please email us at privacy@viber.com for more information, however please note Viber does not disclose your Personal Information with third parties for their direct marketing within the meaning of “Shine the Light” provisions.

Do Not Track Settings: Cal. Bus. And Prof. Code Section 22575 also requires us to notify you how we deal with the “Do Not Track” settings in your browser. As of the effective date listed above, there is no commonly accepted response for Do Not Track signals initiated by browsers. Therefore, we do not respond to the Do Not Track settings. Do Not Track is a privacy preference you can set in your web browser to indicate that you do not want certain information about your web page visits tracked and collected across websites. For more details, including how to turn on Do Not Track, visit: www.donottrack.us.
